FAMILY DAY

dlr Lexlcon SAT 6 OCT 2018

Join us for a very special FAMILY DAY where we mark the centenary of the RMS Leinster, the end of WWI and votes for women.

WE WILL HAVE LOTS FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

Thanks to all the many individuals and groups who have partnered with dlr Lexlcon for this very special Family Day. We have a great array of outdoor and indoor activities but if the weather is poor we will relocate those events indoors.

No booking required for any events but come early, as first come first served. Children must be accompanied by a parent/guardian. All events are FREE!

OUTDOOR EVENTS

Living History

LORD EDWARD'S OWN LIVING HISTORY AND RE-ENACTMENT GROUP

Lord Edward's Own have been portraying the story of the Irish Soldier for the past fourteen years from the 1798 Rebellion to the Great War and Irish War of Independence and Civil War. Have a look at their display to see what a typical soldier's personal equipment was like. They will be doing some drills and guard mounting, weather permitting!

IRISH GREAT WAR SOCIETY

The Irish Great War Society is a living history group dedicated to education and remembrance. They will have artefacts, relics and memorabilia from the Great War era and will carry out realistic re-enactment of First World War scenarios to portray the Irish men and women that served in Irish Regiments of the British Army from 1914-1918.

ST JOHN AMBULANCE IRELAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Pop into dlr Lexlcon to read all about the St John Ambulance Ireland and their role during WW I and the sinking of the Leinster, see their Model T Ford 1915 ambulance. The outdoor display will include First Aid demonstrations and period costume.

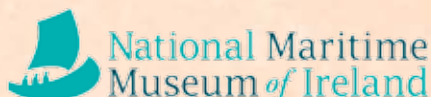

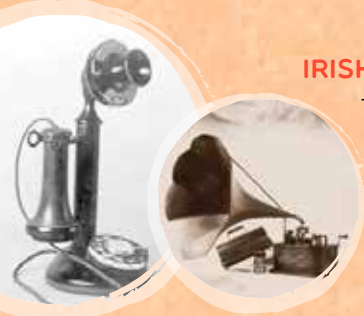

LORRHA PEOPLE IN THE GREAT WAR. IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

Join Gerard O'Meara who has focused on the Great War and its impact in a town in Tipperary. He has a collection which includes barbed wire posts, barbed wire, boxes of shrapnel, nose cones of shells, an old helmet with what looks like a bullet hole, old rifles retrieved from the battlefield and numerous medals etc.

IRISH VINTAGE RADIO & SOUND SOCIETY

This display will show the means of communication and also the means of home entertainment circa 1918 in both rural and urban Ireland. At the time of the sinking of the RMS Leinster, find out what telephones, telegraph/morse instruments were in use, plus a full range of phonograph, gramophone and music box entertainment from the period.

VINTAGE PUNCH AND JUDY SHOWS WITH BILLY BUBBLES

Half hour shows at 12.30, 2.00 and 3.30pm, Moran Park, dlr Lexlcon (weather permitting, indoors if raining)

Don't miss Ireland's favourite magic and Punch and Judy Show. Billy Bubbles will be performing for all the boys and girls during the afternoon with the best of entertainment. Gasp at the magic, laugh at the jokes and enjoy good old vintage fun. Make sure to arrive early and get a good spot.
