Join artist Claire Halpin to create a large cave painting for the Project Room. Make your own paints and brushes and get back to basics with some cave painting, stencilling and drawing.

Painting as Painting can be!

Parents and Toddler Painting Workshop

Wednesday 5 December, 11am–12.30pm

Gallery/Project Room Ages: 2-4yrs

Artist Jane Fogarty introduces this workshop for young children exploring paint as material for play and creation. Take inspiration from Peripheries and explore some of the elements involved in creating a painting; the magic of colour mixing, gesture, and of course imagination! Please wear old clothes, being an artist can be a messy job.

Back to Nature

Children's Painting Workshops

Saturday 19 January

Ages 7-9: 11am–12.30pm

Ages 10-12: 1.30–3pm

Gallery/Project Room

Painting is as old as humankind. Have you ever wondered where early humans got their paints from? Join artist Liz McMahon in this experimental painting workshop to make your own paints and tools from natural materials to create work inspired by paintings in the exhibition.

Christmas Crafts for Adults

Tuesday 27 November, 6.30–8pm

Cost: €5

Project Room

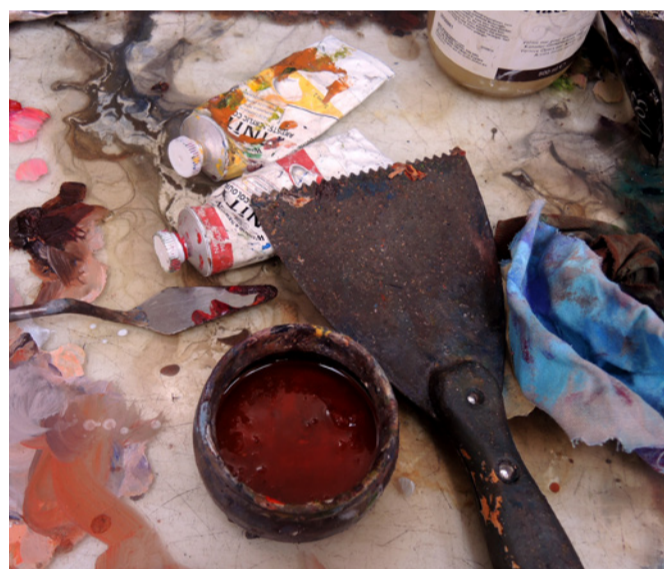

Create your striking Christmas stars with visual artist Tunde Toth in this silk fibre paper making workshop! Using pure, raw silk fibres with metallic materials and fabric dyes, participants will learn this contemporary paper making process and will make two silk stars - a truly unique handmade decoration for Christmas.

Contemporary Acrylic Painting Techniques

Saturday 12 January, 11am–1pm

Cost: €5

Gallery/Project Room

In this workshop with artist Eoin MacLochlainn, look at various mark-making effects in contemporary painting and learn how they can be achieved using acrylic paints. Experiment with a wide range of painting techniques using different tools including brushes, rags, knives, scrapers etc. Try out different painting surfaces. By exploring and trying out these techniques gain a better understanding and appreciation of the paintings in the exhibition and also have some fun!

Look Club # 2

Saturday 19 January, 12–1pm
