

Nuala Hayes Presents: Peig Sayers - The Queen of Irish Storytellers

*Venue: Studio, dlr LexIcon
Date: Thursday 26 October
Time: 6.30pm - 7.45pm
Audience: Adults*

Performed by Nuala Hayes. Animated visuals by Rita Duffy. Music by Aoife Granville. Stories translated from original transcripts of recordings of Peig's stories* by Eilís Ní Dhuibhne. *with kind permission of the National Folklore Collection, U.C.D
Booking via dlr Libraries Eventbrite.

The Little Gold Ring: A Legend of The Spanish Armada by Colin Urwin

*Venue: Studio, dlr LexIcon
Date: Thursday 2 November
Time: 6.30pm - 7.30pm
Audience: Adults*

This performance merges storytelling, music, song, verse and will take you on a journey of wonder and tug at your heart strings. Colin Urwin is a folk singer, storyteller and songwriter from County Antrim.
Booking via dlr Libraries Eventbrite.

Spells, Wells, and other Magical Tells! - Órla Mc Govern

*Venue: Deansgrange Library
Date: Tuesday 31 October
Time: 11am - 12pm
Audience: 4 - 8 years*

For Samhain, Storyteller Órla Mc Govern weaves together a set of stories full of magic and wonder - for listeners 4 - 8 and grown ups who have an inner 4 - 8 year old!
No booking required, all welcome!

Family Storytelling: Colin Urwin

*Venue: dlr LexIcon (Level 4)
Date: Friday 3 November
Time: 3pm - 4pm
Audience: 4+ years*

Described as '..keeping alive the tradition of the Seanchaí', Colin Urwin is a folk singer, songwriter and storyteller from Co. Antrim. As well as his beautifully woven stories drawn from the local legend and folklore of his beloved Glens of Antrim, Colin tells many traditional Irish and Scottish folk tales. A magical afternoon awaits!
No booking required, all welcome!

Whispering Waves - Joe Brennan

*Venue: Studio, dlr LexIcon
Date: Wednesday 1 November
Time: 3pm - 4pm
Audience: 8+ years*

Listen! Can you hear it? Listen carefully can you hear it. That's the sound of the waves whispering... With the greeting an old fisherman opens up a treasure trove of stories whispered on the waves of the wide sea.
Booking via dlr Libraries Eventbrite.

Family Storytelling: Pat Speight

*Venue: Blackrock Library
Date: Saturday 4 November
Time: 3pm - 4pm
Audience: 4+ years*

Pat Speight (aka Pat the Hat) specialises in traditional Irish Tales, Folk Tales from the fireplaces of Ireland. Pat has stories galore about animals & birds, Kings & warriors, saints & sinners, witches & magicians, pickpockets & ghosts, fairies & mermaids & mythical characters that inspire & captivate the imagination. Join us for this wonderful festival finale!
No booking required, all welcome!

Image credit: Rita Duffy

Fáilte go dtí an dara fhéile scéalaíochta Fadó Fadó. Join dlr Libraries this autumn for our second Fadó Fadó storytelling festival, bringing a range of professional storytellers to entertain families, adults and school-children. All events are free, in some cases booking is essential. All events last approximately 1 hour unless otherwise stated.

Storytelling For Schools: Raquel McKee

*Venue: Dundrum Library
Date: Friday 20 October
Time: 10am - 11am & 11am - 12pm*

We are delighted to welcome school groups to Dundrum Library for storytelling with Raquel McKee.
*Booking essential through the library.
Tel: 01 298 5000
Email: dundrumlib@dlrcoco.ie*

Family Storytelling: Raquel McKee

*Venue: dlr LexIcon (Level 4)
Date: Saturday 21 October
Time: 3pm - 4pm
Audience: 4+ years*

Joining us from Co. Antrim, Raquel is a storyteller, actor, award-winning performance poet and singer/songwriter. She brings a broad repertoire of stories to entertain us.
No booking required, all welcome!

Sweetshop on the Shore - Kate Corkery

*Venue: Studio, dlr LexIcon
Date: Monday 23 October
Time: 6.30pm - 7.45pm
Audience: Adults*

This is an autobiographical storytelling performance by Kate Corkery. As the River Lee ebbs and flows nearby, regular customers come and go to a small sweet shop that is at the heart of that community. The stories they share linger in her imagination and grow a life of their own.
Booking via dlr Libraries Eventbrite.

Storytelling For Schools: Kate Corkery

*Venue: Deansgrange Library
Date: Tuesday 24 October
Time: 10am - 11am & 11am - 12pm*

We are delighted to welcome school groups to Deansgrange Library for storytelling with Kate Corkery.
*Booking essential through the library.
Tel: 01 285 0860
Email: deansgrangelib@dlrcoco.ie*

Storytelling For Schools: Seosamh Ó Maolalaí

*Venue: Shankill Library Outreach
Date: Tuesday 24 October
Time: 10am - 11am & 11am - 12pm*

Seosamh is from Dublin. Insíonn sé scéalta i mBéarla agus i nGaeilge. Seosamh tells stories in English & in Irish. Insíonn sé gach saghas scéal – scéalta grinn, scéalta béaloidis na hÉireann agus na cruinne, eachtraí, rannta agus amhráin. He tells all kinds of tales – funny stories, Irish & international folk tales, anecdotes, rhymes & song stories.
*Booking essential through the library.
Tel: 01 282 3081
Email: shankilllib@dlrcoco.ie*

Storytelling For Schools: Liz Weir

*Venue: Dalkey Library
Date: Wednesday 25 October
Time: 10am - 11am & 11am - 12pm*

We are delighted to welcome school groups to Dalkey Library for storytelling with Liz Weir.
*Booking essential through the library.
Tel: 01 285 5277
Email: dalkeylib@dlrcoco.ie*

Family Storytelling with Liz Weir

*Venue: dlr LexIcon (Level 3)
Date: Wednesday 25 October
Time: 3.30pm - 4.30pm
Audience: All ages*

We are delighted to welcome award winning Antrim storyteller Liz Weir to share stories suitable for all the family.
No booking required, all welcome!

Storytelling For Schools: Helena Byrne

*Venue: Stillorgan Library Outreach
Date: Thursday 26 October
Time: 10am - 11am & 11am - 12pm*

Helena Byrne is a highly talented singer, storyteller, actress and songwriter. Originally from County Kilkenny she has been performing since she was knee high to a guitar. A real treat awaits for schools!
*Booking essential through the library.
Tel: 01 288 9655
Email: stillorganlib@dlrcoco.ie*